Dear Harold,

I have just received and studied your letter of the 29th. I don't think that there would be any point in my trying to make you realize that you have misinterpreted, and even misquoted, my memo.

~~XXXX~~ Feeney told me on the 29th that he thought they had memos from you, Bud, Lane, and me. He indicated to me that they did not particularly conflict. That was a surprise to me even before I got your letter. If you did send such a memo to the Committee, I would appreciate a ~~xxx~~ copy; I can assure you that I will think about what you say very carefully.

Sincerely,

Paul
